

Code of Ethics

1. We promise to respect the integrity and welfare of our consumers at all times.
2. We do this by honoring the following promises:
 - a) To treat you with respect, acceptance, and dignity.
 - b) To care and respect you enough to give direct and honest feedback.
 - c) Likewise, to ask you for direct and honest feedback.
 - d) To protect your right to privacy and confidentiality unless it would bring harm to you or others.
 - e) To honor your right to self-determination—that includes your right to receive or refuse services.
 - f) To build on your strengths and resources.
 - g) To ensure your safety by honoring the therapeutic relationship—we will not have a business or romantic relationship with you.
 - h) To act always with integrity, honesty, genuineness and objectivity.